This musical score is for a hymn. It features five systems of staves. The first four systems each consist of a vocal line (treble clef) and a piano accompaniment line (bass clef). The fifth system is a grand staff with both treble and bass clefs. The music is in a common time signature. The tempo is marked with a 'p' for piano. The lyrics are 'Worship the Lord all ye lands, oh yes, oh yes, Worship the Lord all ye lands.' The melody is simple and repetitive, with a focus on the words 'Worship the Lord' and 'all ye lands'. There are some accents and slurs in the piano part.

The fifth system is a grand staff with both treble and bass clefs. The music is in a common time signature. The tempo is marked with a 'f' for forte. The lyrics are 'Let all creatures praise the Lord, Shout and sing alleluia!'. The melody is more complex than the first hymn, with some triplets and slurs. The piano part is also more complex, with some triplets and slurs.
